

History of Nazi Germany, Institutions, Human Rights

Educational materials for public administration, the police and the judiciary

Edited on behalf of the Neuengamme Concentration Camp Memorial by Ulrike Pastoor and Oliver von Wrochem

This publication and the accompanying CD were funded by the Remembrance, Responsibility and Future Foundation as part of its 'Teaching Human Rights' programme as well as by the Federal Commissioner for Culture and the Media based on a decision taken by the German Bundestag.

This publication does not reflect the opinions of the Remembrance, Responsibility and Future Foundation.

The authors are solely responsible for the content.

Copy editing: Lars Jockheck

Copyright clearance for documents and images: Gisela Ewe

CD authoring: Ruben Hittmeyer

ISBN: 978-3-86331-099-8

© 2013 Metropol Verlag

Ansbacher Str. 70

10777 Berlin

Germany

www.metropol-verlag.de

All rights reserved

Printer: SPPrint Consult, Berlin

© Accompanying CD

2013 Neuengamme Concentration Camp Memorial

Jean-Dolidier-Weg 75

21039 Hamburg

Germany

www.kz-gedenkstaette-neuengamme.de

CONTENTS

Introduction by Günter Saathoff	9
ULRIKE PASTOOR * OLIVER VON WROCHEM Teaching history and human rights to professional groups at concentration camp memorials: The 'History of Nazi Germany, Institutions, Human Rights' project	13
CHAPTER 1 Voices of participants	29
Project advisory board Wolf Kaiser, Thomas Lutz, Birgit Menzel, Ludolf Meyer-Johne, Reimer Eggers	31
Participants in the 'Human Rights Education and Nazi History' working group Imke Leicht, Jörg Lange	35
Seminar participants Kyra Köster, Andreas Voigt, Jörg Papendorf	38
CHAPTER 2 Human rights education and historical education with professional groups Current issues and research	41
JÖRG LANGE Concentration camp memorials in Germany: Places for human rights education? Historical-empirical considerations	43
MONIQUE ECKMANN Human rights education and learning about Nazi crimes Differences, similarities, critical areas	53
GERD HANKEL Historical developments and contextualisation of human rights in international law before 1945	63

RAINER HUHLE Nazi crimes and the establishment of a system for protecting human rights after World War II	69
HELMUT KRAMER Legalisation and juridification of Nazi injustices and of human rights violations today	76
CLAUDIA SCHILLING Public administration under the Nazis and today – Characteristics and ethical consequences	82
MARTIN HERRNKIND Human rights education with contemporary relevance in police training and further education	89
SEMINAR MODULES
Module A
KATHRIN HEROLD 'Associative introductions'. Reflective examination of historical and contemporary images in educational work on antiziganism	99
Module B
OLIVER VON WROCHEM * GEORG ERDELBROCK The behaviour of the police from a historical perspective: The role of the police in the Nazi era and in the concentration camp system	113
Module C
CHRISTOPH BITTERBERG The Nazi judiciary: Scope of action in the penal system	127
Module D
GEORG ERDELBROCK Public administration from a historical perspective: Staffing and health policies in the Nazi era	139
Module E
ULRIKE PASTOOR * OLIVER VON WROCHEM Prosecution of Nazi crimes, denazification and the development of human rights protection	151

Module F
KATHRIN HEROLD
The genocide of the Roma and Sinti by the Nazis: Past and present forms of antiziganism	165
Module G
KATHARINA MÖLLER * ULRIKE PASTOOR
Preventive detention from a historical and contemporary perspective	183
Module H
CHRISTIAN HARTZ
Dimensions of forced labour between 1933 and 1945 and compensation practices after the war in Germany	195
Module I
MARTIN REITER * OLIVER VON WROCHEM
Human rights in the context of refugee issues	209
Selected publications
by the Neuengamme Concentration Camp Memorial	221
Advanced training for information disseminators	225
The authors	227
Image references	232
Appendix (on CD-ROM)	